THE YOUNG WIDOW.

She is modest, she is beautiful, Free and easy, but not bold;
Like an apple, ripe and mellow,
Not too young, and not too old, Half laughing, half reproachful, Not advancing and not shy;
There is mischief in her glances,
There is danger in her smile.

She has studied human nature,
She is schooled in all her arts,
She has taken her diploma,
As the mistress of all hearts.
She can tell the very mountain, When to sigh and when to smile;
Oh! a world is something charming,
But a widow all the while.

You are said, how very serious Will her hands be when you meet;
You are angry, you are wretched, Lonely, friendless, fearful, dumb,
You are nothing, how her laughter, Silver sounding, will ring out;
She can turn and catch and play you,
As the angel does the trout.

All old bachelors of fortune,
Who have grown so bold and wise; Ye Adonises of twenty,
With your love looks in your eyes,
You may practice on the innocent, Taught by Cupid since the fall,
But I know a little widow, Who could win and lose you all.

This charming piece, written years ago for the old Mississippi, by her former townsman, the gifted Robert Joseph, is again on its rounds through the press; and we, who first introduced it to the public, have taken pleasure in reproducing it.

How Carpet-Bug Out Went For the Scullawag Nix and Manufactured a Ku Klux

Sensation.

From the N. Y. World.

TALLAHASSEE, March 12, 1873.

A striking instance of the manner in which "Ku-Klux" testimony has been and still is manufactured generally in the South, but particularly in this carpet-bug-ridden State, has just transpired in Columbia County, on the line of the J.
P. & M. Railroad, in East Florida, the details of which reached this point today.

It is proper to premise that Hart, the new Governor here, has named a clear sweep of the county officers in Columbia holding under the late lamented Reed, putting in place of Reed's carpet-buggers what are known in State political circles as "Southern loyalists," or native Republicans, which the present Governor himself is, thus exhibiting a natural preference for men of his own particular political antecedents. This sudden and complete deprivation of Government pay was a greater outrage than any decent carpet-bugger would be expected to endure, and more than they propose to tolerate, as the sequel will show.

Accordingly on last Thursday night at Lake City, the county seat of Columbia county, the advanced carpet-bugger, "Ku-Klux" armed themselves en masse and proceeded to attack the dwelling-houses of the Southern loyalist "ins," firing several volleys each into the houses of the new County Clerk, Sheriff, Judge, and Tax-Collector, but singularly enough, not inflicting one, although all the houses but one were occupied by the offensive parties at the time of the outrage, which was perpetrated between the hours of twelve and three o'clock. The wily carpet-bugger of course had brought them in advance of a plan to divert suspicion, which was as usual to charge it upon the "Ku-Klux," that convenient and ever-ready scapegoat for Radical villainy.

So, next morning (Friday, the 7th instant), before the sun had climbed the hills, the very worst forth that the rebelious Ku-Klux had rallied and concentrated in Columbia, and murdered a score of the "true blue," that the whole county was in a state of commotion, and all true Republicans lying from their homes for their lives—and that the Governor must at once order out the militia, declare martial law, call on the General Government for troops, and do everything and anything to put down the rebels and traitors who were murdering loyal men and women!

At this writing every body knows the truth of this so-called Ku-Klux outrage, and it is just as well that you in the first part of this letter. The "outs" simply went for the "ins" and the whole transaction is confined to Republicans.
One of the ring leaders is now in arrest at Jacksonville, but it is not probable that the matter will be further investigated, unless, indeed, the true citizens of the county insist upon and demand a vigorous prosecution, as is very likely.

This is the way Ku-Klux outrages are manufactured in Florida.

A Legal Condemn.

The lamented Judge Yerger had a way of putting curious questions to his brethren that many a time created a hearty laugh. Meeting a brother attorney who claimed to have been an English barrister before he emigrated to this land of liberty, he asked him in the most solemn and serious manner: "Brother C—, I have a case in court that troubles me no little, and knowing that you are familiar with English law, I would like you to give me some information. Can a man marry a widow's sister in England?" The barrister looked a little puzzled, but after a moment's hesitation replied:
"Well, pon my soul! I believe that he could not; but, bless me, I am positive that at a recent act of Victoria the blasted thing is permitted."

The Press the Orator of the Day.

Hon. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, in a recent lecture on oratory, used this language:

"The grand days of oratory are over.
The future may give birth to men who shall rank with the greatest of the past, for oratory can never be lost while liberty survives; but for all this, its glory, power and pride have passed away forever. A power mightier than an army of orators has arisen which has dwarfed their genus and lowered them to the level of ordinary mortals, and which is changing the whole world. The power of the orator is passing, and the printing press is taking its place. The press is pressing even their words to the world next day. If the press then does honestly its duty, with its far greater powers and labors, for the welfare of the people, the honor of the Nation, and the glory of God, we may be content that the days of oratory are over."

There has been a feeble utterance somewhere of Mr. Colfax's name in connection with the next Presidency. It is probable, however, that the ownership of Credit Mobilier stock, the prevarication of contrary statements, and the acceptance of quarterly drafts from Government contractors may not be regarded as such distinguished merits four years from now as at the present time.—Chicago Tribune.

Rev. Dr. Lovick Pierce preached at Macon, Ga. place his residence, on Sunday the 23d inst., and was eighty-nine years old the next day.
